YOUTH NEWS:

steve @bemiss.com

Youth Minister Steve & wife Tami

I've always considered myself a hard worker, with two jobs I am constantly on the go. A lot of times when I come home I talk about how hard I worked or how exhausted I am. But it seems that I am always given a wake-up call about this time of year when I set aside one day to really get in the yard and work. I spend about 12 hours outside chain-sawing, weed eating, hedge trimming, mowing and dragging limbs and logs to a burn pile. When I finally make it inside and my body is refusing to accept my apology for what I did to it! I'm reminded that my jobs aren't that physically demanding and that I'm not in near as good of shape as I thought I was!

I think that most of us would consider ourselves fairly active Christians. Attending church weekly, supporting ministries and being involved in all the special activities. Then this "Big Invite" comes along and reminds us that there are a lot of people on our "list" that we could've and should've been praying for and inviting all year long. However, we waited until a special emphasis before we got out there and did the real work.

As I write this article I think that almost everyone I invited will be there this Sunday! Maybe all they were waiting for was an actual invite from me! Yes, I've done some extra work to get them there, we've invited them all back to our house for lunch. But at the end of the day isn't Christ worth it! Maybe I wasn't in as good of spiritual shape as I thought I was, however, it's Christ and the "lost" that I owe the apology too!

All things in Christ!
Steve Shierling

WORSHIP MATTERS:

Minister of Music John & wife Jeanette

To Proclaim the Gospel...

My Savior's Love
Words and Music by Charles Gabriel

Our Savior's love was agape love in its highest form. He loved us enough to leave heaven's best, to suffer humiliation and death for a world of rebellious sinners. Only when we are gathered in glory with the ransomed of the ages and see His face will we know fully the meaning of this divine love.

In the meantime, however, the scriptural command is that we are to live a life of love that ministers to the needs of others as a "fragrant offering of sacrifice to God." How marvelous! How wonderful! Is my Savior's love for me.

See you in worship,
John

Mission News:

The next trip to Peru is early May. I need to purchase tickets this week, so if you are interested in making this trip let me know asap.

Continue to pray for Peru. This will be a trip where we can really be an encouragement to the people as they recover from damage and deaths due to the flooding in the area.

Kids 4 Christ:

We are expecting the Egg Hunt on this Saturday to be a great day! Bring your children and grand children, friends and neighbors, from 10:00 am till 12:00 noon. Everything begins upstairs in the children's department.

There are only a few more practices before our Children's Spring Program. You don't want to miss it, on April 30th, 6:30pm. There will be singing, drama, puppets and boom-whackers. We do have some very talented kids, so come on out and support the Kid's ministry.
