Worship Choir Will Have Rehearsal @ 7 p.m.

I will not lose. I can't. It isn't possible. I guarantee it. No one can stop me. Not even you. Sound braggadocios? It's not. If God goes before me, I know the victory is guaranteed. If God is in it, He is always in it to win it. And, God always wins. So, as long as I know I am in Him and in His will, I win.

The problem is that too many of us are trying to win it ourselves. As one author I read recently put it, "When we work, we work. When we pray, God works." Ever heard the phrase "too many chiefs"? We all have. And many of us have seen it as well. I've seen it even in the church. A lot of us have too many chiefs in our own heart and mind. Voices vying for our attention and devotion. But, when we heed only the One Chief of heaven, victory is assured.

The cross and the empty tomb teach us many things. And, even more importantly, they accomplished many things, namely our salvation. One lesson we also can take away is that with God nothing is impossible. And, in Him victory is assured. Victory over sin, selfishness, addiction, rebellion, heartache, pain, and more.

Weekly I face battles. Daily I face constraints. I echo Paul when he said about himself, "besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: my deep concern for all the churches." (2 Corinthians 11:28) As well, I declare with Paul when he triumphantly states, "but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Corinthians 15:57)

Forever His,
Pastor Chris Hilliard

WORSHIP MATTERS:

fbqworship@hotmail.com

To Proclaim the Gospel...

That knowledge assures us that our suffering is never purposeless, blind, unfair, or random. God is working out His perfect plan for us, and He will never let us endure hardships without giving us the grace to endure them.

We can rejoice in our trials because we know that God is using them to prepare us for the glory to be revealed in us. We can be encouraged that our sufferings make us run to God for strength. We can thank God that in the midst of adversity He is working out His gracious plans for us.

See you in worship,

John

 Sponsored By Awana
APRIL:

Small New Toys: Cars, Balls, Small Games, Jump Ropes, Card Games, Jacks, Marbles, Etc.

A List of Monthly Items Being Collected
 May Be Picked Up In The Hallway

No Awana & No Bible Drill
 April 2nd, 9th, or 16th

Kids 4 Christ:

We are still collecting plastic Easter eggs and individually wrapped candy for the Big Egg Hunt on April 15th. We are adding to the needs list, items we need for craft projects the kids will be doing during the egg hunt.

1. Jelly beans
2. Salted peanuts
3. Raisins or Craisins
4. Cheese Puffs (the soft or crunchy ones that come in a bag)
5. Ziploc bags (snack size and sandwich size)

Thank you for helping provide these items. We will also need volunteers for the day of the egg hunt. It would be nice to have enough volunteers who do not have small children to help, so the Mom's and Dad's with small ones, can enjoy the day with their kids.

Mission News:

The next mission trip to Peru will be early May some time between May 6th and May 22nd. Please let me know if you are interested in going at this time. The tentative plans are to take care of the paperwork for the land gift that has been given to us; host a Vacation Bible School in the area where the property is located; go to the new churches and groups who are going to participate in the Bible Drill this year; and meet with the Bible Drill leaders.

Continue to pray for the people of Peru affected by the flooding conditions. Many have been left homeless and many lives have been lost. As of the 24th, more than 145,000 properties have been damaged, 650,000 people affected by the storm conditions and more than 80 people have been killed. People in the area where we live and work while there have not suffered as much as those living down the mountains and our friends in Lima. Pray the rains will cease.

 Barbara Waldron
