The Holy Week services Easter week were a blessing to attend. It is always a joy to mingle and worship with other Christians from different churches. We were only able to attend two out of the three week-day services and both times we tried something new. We livestreamed the service on Facebook. I'd seen many do this recently and thought I'd give it a try. It was simple. I took out my wife's phone and with a few taps we were live. And on her phone, I could see in real time who was clicking in to watch. One of those watching sent a message on the second day. "Why are you having church all week?" I answered and shared about the Holy Week services we held Easter week.

But, the question got me thinking. Do you have church all week? I'm not referring to going to a service every day of the week. I'm asking if you "have church" all week? You see, as a part of the Body of Christ, we the people are the church. And Jesus has called us to be the church wherever we are by going out and proclaiming Him. So, even when I'm not in a service with other believers I can have church. I "have" church by worshipping all day, every day. I "have" church by praying with others, meeting needs, and being a blessing as I go through my day.

Your life and mine is "livestreamed" daily before the eyes of everyone we meet. As they watch us, do they wonder "Why are you having church all week?" They may not think in those terms but they may wonder why we have joy all week, care for others all week, talk about Jesus all week, and have a spring in our step all week. When they ask, tell them you are having church. Then invite them to be a part of it too.

YOUTH NEWS:

steve @bemiss.com

Youth Minister Steve & wife Tami

As the late great Paul Harvey used to say, 'and now the rest of the story'!

On Thursday afternoon, just four days after Easter. I looked out across the pond and saw our two geese standing on the isthmus together. They were acting frantic so I grabbed a scope to see if they were trying to fight off a predator. That's when I saw it, one of their eggs had finally hatched and they were acting like they were in disbelief! By Friday morning there were two more for a total of three baby goslings following them across the pond. The proud parents were simply glowing!

The only thing that I can say about this wonderful story, is our faithfulness equals God's reward! Now go and be faithful the reward is coming!

All things in Christ!

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

Words and Music by Thomas Chisholm

One of the important lessons the Children of Israel had to learn during their wilderness journey was that God's provision of manna for them was on a morning by morning basis. They could not survive on old manna nor could it be stored for future use.

While many enduring hymns are born out of a particular dramatic experience, this was simply the result of the author's "morning by morning" realization of God's personal faithfulness in his daily life.

Live with this spirit of grateful praise!
John

TIDBITS OF INFORMATION:
 For anyone needing to enter the chapel area on Sunday mornings, without using stairs, the exterior Prayer Room Door off the chapel is unlocked.

On Sunday mornings everyone that is available is welcome and encouraged to join Pastor Chris and Pastor Steve for a special time of prayer for our worship service. They meet in the Pastor's Study/Office at 9:15 a.m. each week.

On most Fridays around 12 noon a group of ladies meet in the sanctuary to pray for our church, our staff, our community, our world, and any other special needs known. We would love to have you join us whenever you're available.
 Matthew 18:20

Mission News:
 I talked with Javier (our Peru translator) this week and things are much better in Lima as far as the flooding that occurred in the mountains. There was a concern that it would affect their drinking water. The rains have stopped. Many villages in the mountains are still suffering from the floods and the destruction that occurred. Continue to pray for the people who lost loved ones and their homes and other property.
 The next trip will be May 11-22, and the team is Barbara and Tommy Waldron, and Scott Hockenbury. Pray for the team as we prepare to do what God has planned for us.
 In HIS Service, Barbara Waldron

Kids 4 Christ:
 Thanks to everyone who came out and helped out with this years Easter Egg Hunt. The volunteers were just the best! I can't begin to express how grateful I am for all the support that is shown to our children's ministry.
 The children will give you a small taste of what has been going on in the kid's ministry on April 30th, during the evening service. There will be a time of fellowship after the program, so we would appreciate any finger foods you would like to provide.
 Due to lack of participation, the Regional Bible Drill competition in Albany was canceled for April 25th.
 During the summer, starting May 14th, there will be no children's church during the morning worship time.
 The kid's out of school party will be sponsored by the youth department on May 22nd at 10:00 a.m. Kids need to meet at the church at 9:30 to ride the bus or just go to the Ponderosa. Swimsuits and towels are a must.

First Baptist Church Motto:
 Sharing Christ...
 Serving our Community.

Quitman is a small town. First Baptist is the “big” church in this small town. Yet, we would still be labeled a small to medium sized church in most church size categories. And this small town “big” church has had great impact in many ways all around the world. First Baptist has developed a reputation for being a very mission minded church and, as well, a church with one of best music ministries. From the first day, when I came to First Baptist, I have been amazed at the musical talent God has brought and continues to bring our way. The sad part is that we often must say “good-bye” to that wonderful talent as God calls them elsewhere. One of those is Tom Whiddon. Tom has been with us a year and his impact was immediate and wonderful. From the prelude to the postlude he not only plays beautifully but heartfully. He thinks through every selection to enhance our worship and to support my message. We begin on a high note and end on a high note each Sunday. I am saddened to hear that God is calling him elsewhere but grateful for the short season we’ve had with him. Will you join me in saying a huge “THANK YOU” for all he has done for us. As well, pray that God continues to use him in the next ministry and that God would bless us again with a new organist. Thanks, Tom. It has been a blessing.
