YOUTH NEWS:

steve@bemiss.com

Youth Minister Steve & wife Tami

While checking on probationers, in the freezing cold, I stopped at one particular residence. The glass in the front door had been broken and someone had replaced it with roofing shingles. This was a classic case of using the wrong materials for the job.

Before we get too tickled at my probationer, I will ask you to consider this, How many times does something become broken in our lives and we try to fix it with something other than Christ? Have you ever heard of someone trying to "drown sorrow", or using revenge to right a wrong? I have often seen people stop coming to church because of hurt feelings or something embarrassing exposed in their lives.

I challenge all who read this, when something goes wrong or becomes broken in our life, meet it head-on with the one who formed you in your mother's womb and He is the only One that can repair the damage to a broken soul!--

All things in Christ!

WORSHIP MATTERS:

fbqworship@hotmail.com

Minister of Music John & wife Jeanette

Sing God's Word

Music helps us reflect the glory and activity of the triune God.

God is a singing God, He rejoices over us with singing. Jesus sang a hymn with His disciples on the night before He died. The Holy Spirit inspires songs in believers' hearts as He fills them. That's one reason we often sense God's presence in a more pronounced way when we gather to sing His praises. The Holy Spirit is in our midst, inspiring our songs.

It's a source of profound encouragement to realize that God gave us music to deepen and develop our relationship with Him. The Father sings, the Son sings, and the Spirit sings. How can we keep from singing?

I look forward to seeing you soon,

John

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX MINISTRY UPDATE:
 The O.C.C. shoeboxes we prepared in 2016 were shipped to Burkina Faso in West Africa and Chad in Central Africa. 😊 Please check in the back hallway for the collection list, as we begin to collect items for our 2017 boxes.

AWANA GRAND PRIX UPDATE: The 2nd Annual FBC Awana Grand Prix will be March 11th. If you're not familiar with this event, wooden car kits are purchased through the FBC Awana Clubs and raced on a 35' aluminum race track. The Grand Prix Race is very similar to the Boy Scout's Pinewood Derby. Car kits are now available for $5 each - Please see me, Dee Dee Peek to purchase yours.

This year the Grand Prix will be open to anyone that wants to participate. That means anyone from the ages of 4 years old through adults (no matter what church affiliation). Help us get the word out to anyone that may be interested in having a fun day of fellowship and a little friendly competition. 😊

Thank your continued support of our Awana Ministry, Dee Dee Peek, Awana Commander

First Baptist Church Motto: Sharing Christ...
 Serving our Community.

If you wish to provide an arrangement for the sanctuary anytime during 2017 please choose an available "Sunday's" date on the Flower Calendar located beside the nursery.

If you normally provide flowers 'annually' for an occasion (ex. In Memory or In Honor), an attempt has been made to reserve 'your annual date'. To avoid confusion, please check to make sure your date, or the Sunday as close as possible to the date of your special occasion, has been properly reserved.

Thanks,
 Phyllis Hubert, Church Decoration Committee
