Over the years I have lent individuals books that might bless them or they showed interest in. More than once a book was absorbed into their personal library, I presume, because I never saw it again. Truthfully, I don't really mind. I rarely lend out books that I'm afraid to part with. But, have you ever had someone borrow something that really mattered to you and then it was never returned? Or, have you given someone management of something that is yours and then watched them selfishly not give it back? It can be frustrating and even offensive. We think, "Didn't they know it was mine? Don't they have respect for other people's property?" With that in mind, I wonder what God thinks about how we treat what is His.

What is His? Everything.

Our very lives are a gift from Him. As Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 6:19-20, "...you are not your own". The very breath we breathe is literally from Him. It isn't ours. It has been loaned to us. While we have it, we are supposed to use it in a way that honors Him. And, we are to give it back to Him as well. That is what we do when we praise, testify, sing, preach, teach, and pray. We take the very breath He has put in us, the very breath that is from Him, and we give it back. Far be it from us to take what God has loaned us and to squander it, abuse it, or neglect it. Truthfully, in the end, there is no way we can keep it for ourselves. I may not always get those books back that I loan, but God will one day call for us to give back all that He has loaned us. One day, "...each of us shall give account of himself to God." (Romans 14:12)

What have you done with what God has loaned you? None of us are owners. We are all stewards. And one day we will give an account, "...everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away." (Matthew 25:29)

Blessings,
Pastor Chris Hilliard

YOUTH NEWS:

Youth Minister Steve & wife Tami

Mission-Fuge was a great success! Our high schoolers were blessed beyond measure and so were the adults that were able to go on the trip!

It's such a reminder that even when we are ministering to others, God can use that experience to draw us closer to Himself! This year's camp theme was "Convergence", making Godly decisions when there are several paths to choose from! This was a wonderful theme for not only our teenagers but also for the chaperones! I know that it spoke volumes into my own life and decisions that I need to make; like to not get in a rush but wait on God and He will show me the path I need to take.

I trust that the success of Mission-Fuge was based on the prayers of the Saints back home as well as the Mission-Fuge staff! And since SuperWOW is only a few days away, I covet your prayers for not only our students but the chaperones as well! Thank you all for your support, we love you all!

All things in Christ!

How Great Thou Art

This inspiring hymn of praise and adoration reminds us of God's unlimited power and love in creation and redemption.

After a violent storm, Carl Boberg, in 1886, falling on his knees in awe and adoration of Almighty God, wrote these words of praise.

Let us take time to think once again about the unfathomable greatness of God and His wonderful redeeming love for each of us.

Passport to Peru - God's Good Gifts VBS 2017

What an amazing Peruvian adventure we had this past week in VBS! It was truly a blessing to serve God as we ministered to the heart of each child. During the week we were able to challenge, teach, and lead the children throughout four stations of learning. All were reminded of God's good gifts: comfort, patience, peace, love, and joy!

It was our prayer that the students not only develop an understanding of God's love for them, but that they would see how we can show the love of Christ to others - such as to our friends in Peru. Our Peruvian friends sent special video messages of encouragement for our VBS children to watch. The children also received their very own letters from a Peruvian pen pal. During the week they wrote letters to their new pal, made friendship bracelets for them, and brought donations to help build a park in Peru so that their new friends will have a safe and fun place to play and fellowship!

What a blessing it is to serve at FBC! It truly was an amazing week and a huge THANK YOU goes out to all who helped us lead these children on a part of their faith journey. You prayed, planned, donated goods, and participated in countless ways to ensure we had a successful week. It takes every part of the church body to make VBS happen and you did an amazing job! We can't say thank you enough!

In Christ,
 Wendy Graham, Melissa Stalvey, and Fran Wisenbaker

Kids 4 Christ News:

It's great to have so many volunteers willing to help out in the children's ministry. Investing in the lives of children is a blessing. VBS this year was a wonderful experience, a big thank you to the VBS planning team, Fran Wisenbaker, Melissa Stalvey, Wendy Graham, and Danielle Knight. Great job!!

There has been a change in Kid's camp dates due to an over-abundance of boys registering for the Legacy Camps. The camp staff has added an additional week for boys during the same week as the girls camp. They will still be separate camps just going on at the same time. So now our boys and girls will be able to go during the same week, July 16th-20th. Camp registrations have been delivered and all is set for a great week.

Remember, all kid's activities on Wednesday and Sunday nights, during the summer, meet from 6:30-7:30.

Mission News:

The next mission trip to Peru will be August 16th or 17th through August 28th. We will be hosting the Bible Drill and start work on the park in Santo Domingo. If you are able to go please let me know as soon as possible, with specific dates already I will purchase tickets as soon as a good deal pops up.
